Theoretically no students run at a shooter, so one would expect their backs to be facing the threat while running away. Whereas if they weren't running and needed to ground themselves down, they would theoretically hold the backpack in front of themselves protecting them from the threat.

This comes as a responsibility to the parents who are buying these to teach their children how to effectively protect themselves with these items. I'd love to hear if you have some suggestions or thoughts.

Let me know if you have any other questions!

Thanks!

Hi Damien,

To assume I have no tactical training when I have spent years learning, and NOT assuming such as yourself is asinine at best. The personal attacks are quite unbecoming of someone such as yourself. The owner of a company should hold themselves to higher standards, I suppose this speaks to the quality of your products as well, and probably your customer service...

With that said, teachers and Staff are beyond important, this is why our line of products is far more than just a backpack or insert.... We offer white board, glass panels, Solid panel dividers all level III+ and that's just to name a few. Add ballistic blankets, our shields and plate carriers and we have something to quite literally protect every individual in any school at any moment.

It seems perhaps the research needing done might be on your end. All the best with your business!

Thanks,

My father is a current Chief of Police for a major department and my closest friend is an LT for St Johns..... Again, you know nothing and come off as the uneducated shmuck you are. Congrats finding my photo on LinkedIn, you're a super spy. What have you done besides make a BS non protective backpack? Good luck pushing poorly made mediocre products! I will make sure I don't buy one, since I actually care to protect my life, lol.

I can guarantee my training far out weighs yours, not to even begin to mention my intellectual capacity or intelligence. Both of which you're sorely lacking from.

You're what? 55+ with an unsuccessful company? Try to ruffle all the feathers you can. In two years no one will remember your company existed.

Damian Ross 02:18 PM

Did you just say "my daddy and my friend?"

Matt Morales 02:23 PM

LOL, you're really reaching for straws now, huh? I said I train, and was raised in a tactical environment since I was a child. Plenty proficient in a self defense environment and firearms. Not to mention self defense tactics. Use the very few braincells you have left to comprehend what is being written as opposed to insinuating everything incorrectly, again....

Let us know when you do something noteworthy, we'll be all ears and waiting!

What else was I to expect from some little guy from the NE.... All talk, no action. Typical Northeasterners.

Have a great day! God Bless (:

Ummm...we've been in business since 2007. I just like messing with BS when I see it.

Congrats on the NEW solution!

Congrats on being an unsuccessful troll, I appreciate the entertainment today! Good luck

Damian Ross 02:35 PM

Thanks! Good luck with the Ozempic.

Matt Morales 02:37 PM

Thanks! Because I can lose weight, but you'll always be 5'4". Goodluck with the heightening surgery!

Damian Ross 02:38 PM

But you can't...and you won't because you would have.

Matt Morales 02:40 PM

That's like your "Black belt" you get that from sparring children? Thanks for the fun!

Damian Ross 02:42 PM

You stopped trying like 4 comments ago. I don't even know what that means.

Matt Morales 02:43 PM

I don't think you know what business acumen means either haha

Damian Ross 02:44 PM

Make that 5.
